Books

The Wild Foods Cookbook
Ptarmigan jerky. Kelp chips. Pickled Octopus. These are just a sample of the tasty recipes you will find in The Wild Foods Cookbook, a museum publication that highlights the preparation of locally harvested foods. This 68-page book explores Alutiiq cuisine from beverages and appetizers to side dishes, main courses, and desserts, illustrated with photos from the museum’s collections.

Price: $12.00

Naut’staarpet—Our Plants
A Kodiak Alutiiq Plantlore
Priscilla Russell’s Kodiak Alutiiq plantlore captures the many connections between Alutiiq people and plants. Her careful study reveals how the Alutiiq harvest, process, and use everything from wild berries and vegetables to wood and medicinal plants. Information shared by Alutiiq people forms the heart of her book.

Price: $25.00

Alutiiq Traditions:
An Introduction to the Native Culture of the Kodiak Archipelago
The Alutiiq Museum developed the lessons in this booklet to answer some of the most frequently asked visitor questions and to supplement its exhibits. The lessons introduce many cultural topics and direct readers to additional sources of information.

Price: $12.00
Books

Igaruacirpet- Our Way of Making Design
Igaruacirpet explores the Alutiiq arts, focusing on the ways graphic designs carry cultural information. Chapters on petroglyphs, incised drawings, painting and body art share hundred of traditional images, investigate their history and meaning, and reveal connections in Alutiiq art. Alutiiq designs express an Alutiiq worldview that appears in everything from paintings to parkas. Limited edition paperback, 8.5 x 11", 208 pages, 344 images, 12 tables, published in 2018.

Price: $25.00

The Alutiit/Sugpiat: Catalog of the Collections of the Kunstkamera
This beautifully photographed book catalogs the collection of nearly five hundred Alutiiq cultural items held by the Peter the Great Museum of Anthropology and Ethnography, or the Kunstkamera, in St. Petersburg, Russia. Gathered between 1780 and 1867, many of the artifacts are composed of fur, feathers, gut, hair, and other delicate materials.

Price: $50.00

Two Journeys
This companion to the Giinaquq: Like a Face exhibition features photos of historic Alutiiq masks from the Pinart Collection at the Chateau-Musée, France. It traces the history of the masks and the journey of Alutiiq artists to see and study them.

Price: $19.95
Creative Alaska

Creative Alaska profiles the award winners of the annual Rasmuson Foundation grants from 2004 to 2013 in three categories: Distinguished Artists, Fellowships, and Project Awards. Richly illustrated accounts of each of the artists and their work illuminate the challenges and opportunities of the artistic life in Alaska and the powerful impact of the Rasmuson Foundation’s support.

Edited by Sven Haakanson and Amy Steffian

Price: $50.00

---

The Cape Alitak Petroglyphs

A personal exploration of the Cape Alitak petroglyphs, by Alaskan naturalist Woody Kneeble, illustrated with the author’s drawings and photographs.

Price: $19.95

---

Kal’unek From Karluk

For six hundred years, the Alutiiq built houses upon houses at a site in Karluk, preserving layer after layer of their ways of life. Researchers recovered more than 26,000 items made of wood, bone, ivory, baleen, antler, and leather before the river finally shifted and washed away the site forever.

Beautifully photographed, the book also features essays by community members and scholars and a glossary of Alutiiq terms developed for the artifacts by Kodiak Elders.

Price: $50.00
Kid’s Corner

Coloring Alutiiq
This 28-page coloring book features line drawings by Alutiiq artist Hanna Sholl. The images show traditional clothing and the animals and tools used in their manufacture. Color caribou, squirrels, and puffins, and the parkas made from their skins. Each page includes Alutiiq language vocabulary provided by Elder speakers.

The book also has an introduction to the Alutiiq people, a map of Kodiak, and information on traditional colors. 8.5" x 11". Black and white interior, color cover.

For people of all ages who enjoy coloring.

Price: $10.50

Colored Pencil Set
KRaas’kaat is the Alutiiq word for "colors." This set features 12 colored pencils and a ruler, all in wooden box with the museum’s logo.

Price: $5.75

Uswitusqaq's Dream
Uswitusqaq's Dream is a children's novel about life on Kodiak Island in the 1800s. This charming story follows Alutiiq youth Kuuku and Tanqiq on a journey of self-discovery. Traveling far from home, the boys discover a hidden bay with a rare pod of sea otters. This exciting story features descriptions of Kodiak’s natural environment, interwoven with details of Alutiiq culture and history.

Written by Pattie Leighton with Alutiiq vocabulary by April Laktonen Counciller and cover art by Sara Squartsoff.

Recommended for reading-level students in grades 3 through 6, and for reading aloud to children of all ages.

Price: $12.00
Alutiiq Language

Conversational Phrasebook
Practice Alutiiq phrases in an enjoyable self-paced format with this book and audio CD. Paperback, 44 pages, with CD.

Price: $13.00

Alutiiq Word of the Week Book
Fifteen years of the museum’s popular lessons on all things Alutiiq, with historic photos and a helpful index. Paperback, 207 pages.

Price: $22.00

Alutiiq Numbers and Alphabet Posters
Count to ten in Alutiiq or learn your Alutiiq letters and sounds with this colorful pair of posters, 18” x 24” each.

Price: $5.00 per poster
Kodiak Alutiiq Place Names Map
Alutiiq names for Kodiak communities and landforms on a colorful painted map of Kodiak by Bruce Nelson. 18” x 24”

Price: $8.00

Multimedia

Cape Alitak Petroglyphs DVD
For thousands of years, Alutiiq people lived in Kodiak. The Cape Alitak petroglyphs are a rare written record of their way of life. Pecked into Kodiak’s granite bedrock, images of people and animals preserve customs from the Alutiiq past. Museum scientists explain amazing history. We learn about the environment that surrounds Cape Alitak while hearing the stories its sites reveal.

Price: $8.00

Generations–An Alutiiq Music CD
Traditional and contemporary Alutiiq songs from Alaska’s Kodiak Island. Audio CD with 20 tracks.

Price: $15.00
Ordering

You may order online or by phone. To place an order, please contact us:

Phone: 844-425-8844
Fax: 866-355-7767

Or online: www.alutiiqmuseum.org

Payment can be made by using credit cards, check, money order or cash. For purchase order by invoice, please contact us to establish a business account.

For ordering assistance or inquiries, please contact:

Marlise Lee, Gallery Coordinator
Alutiiq Museum & Archaeological Repository
844-425-8844 x13
marlise@alutiiqmuseum.org

Our Store

The Alutiiq Museum Store preserves and shares Alutiiq heritage through the sale of quality merchandise related to the museum’s mission and collections. Our publications, artwork, jewelry, toys and clothing promote leaning, interaction and exchange. By providing an outlet for works inspired by Alutiiq heritage, we support contemporary artists in their exploration of the Alutiiq world.