

Quliyangualikina – Make a Story

Long before there were books, Alutiiq people told stories to share history and events. Create your own quliyanguaq—story by filling in the blanks.

Pisurta the Hunter

Once long ago, a hunter named Pisurta was getting ready to go out _____ (verb ending in -ing)

for _____. Before setting out, Pisurta made sure to pack a spear, a throwing (animal, plural)

board, and a _____, just in case. Pisurta put the gear into a _____ (noun) (noun)

and left. First, Pisurta took a _____ upriver. Then, she walked on the land, (vehicle)

_____ under the _____ along the way. Finally, Pisurta reached (verb ending in -ing) (plural noun)

_____. But instead of _____, Pisurta found _____!
(place) (same animal as above, plural) (plural noun)

Feeling _____, Pisurta kept _____. After _____, (emotion) (verb ending in -ing) (amount of time)

Pisurta finally found some _____! Pisurta _____ them and (animal, plural) (verb, past tense)

brought them back to her home. Then, Pisurta _____ them, and then (verb, past tense)

_____ them. Finally, Pisurta ate them!
(verb, past tense)