

Cama'i – Hello,

As 2025 begins, we are putting the finishing touches on the newly renovated Alutiiq Museum. We have a lot of work to complete before we can share our space—setting up our classroom and library, building new exhibits, and stocking the store. Save the date! Our grand reopening is May, 2025. Until then we will continue to serve in the community and online. Nuuwikuutak'gcikina! – Happy New Years!

Explore Ancestral Objects

Uyamilliquaq—Beaded necklace, Anchorage Museum collections.

This double strand beaded necklace is one of the Alutiiq/Sugpiaq objects in the Anchorage Museum's collections. It came from Mrs. Nicholai of Eek and belonged to her great-grandmother from Kodiak. See this piece and many others in the Amutat Database. Produced with support from the Tangirnaq Native Village and the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Amutat

Meet Artists

We are pleased to welcome two Alutiiq artists to our online artist gallery—Beverly Moreno and Cindy Pennington. Learn about their inspirations and see examples of their work at the links below. If you would like an artist page on the museum's website, please contact Chyan Heine.

Beverly Moreno

Cindy Pennington

Enjoy Recent Acquisitions

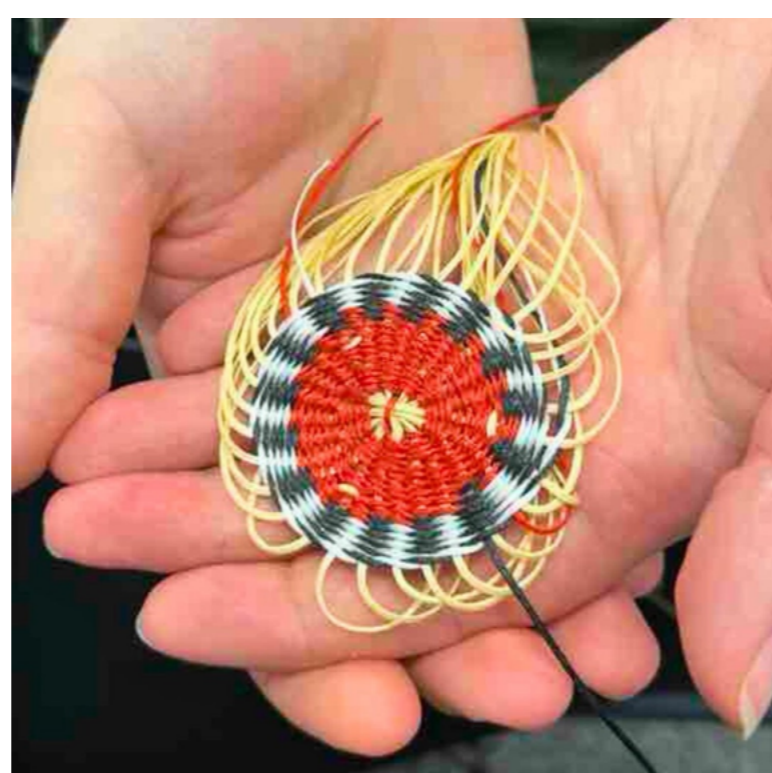

Our contemporary art collection grew last year with donations and purchases. See the latest additions on our website.

Photo: Journey, oil lamp of greywacke by Rolf Christiansen, 2024. Purchased with support of Rasmuson Foundation.

Art Gallery

Start Weaving

Learn the steps to start a weaving with instructions by Alutiiq artist Mariah Stapleton. This activity makes a small woven circle to help you practice twining techniques. Produced with support from the Munartet project and the Alaska State Council on the Arts.

Weaving Activity

Shop Local. Shop Alutiiq.

The Hunter, giclee print by Alaska Native Artist Rhonda Shelford Jansen

Artwork can transform a room. A colorful print or a dramatic photograph adds interest and a story to any space. Artwork makes your home or office look good. Visit the Alutiiq Museum Store for graphic art inspired by Kodiak's unique history and environment.

Alutiiq Museum Store
Online or at the Downtown Marketplace
111 Rezanof Drive, Kodiak

Shop Online

Pick. Click. Give.

Alaskans, when you apply for this year's Permanent Fund Dividend, consider a gift to the Alutiiq Museum. Pick. Click. Give. for culture. It's easy, safe, and a great way to keep the fire of Alutiiq culture burning bright.

Tuniuciiqarpekut-qaa?
Will you support us?

PFD Application

The Alutiiq Museum is a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and sharing the heritage and living culture of the Alutiiq, an Alaska Native tribal people. Representatives of Kodiak Alutiiq organizations govern the museum with funding from charitable contributions, memberships, grants, contracts, and sales.

