

ALUTIIQ ARTS & ARTISTS

By supporting artists of all ages and skills, the Alutiiq Museum helps Alutiiq/Sugpiaq people live their culture. Our programs grow knowledge of the arts through access to ancestral objects, mentorship, and hands-on learning. Our museum store helps artists make a living through their work and continue to create. An online store complements our gallery store, sharing Alutiiq arts with patrons worldwide.

alutiiqmuseumstore.org.

Left: Golden-crowned sparrow mask by Lena Amason Berns

Alutiiq Museum Store Facts . . .

1

Premier outlet for Alutiiq artwork

80+

Artists selling and consigning

100+

Products inspired by Alutiiq heritage

Arts Education

- Arts workshops for all ages—online and in-person
- Artist demonstrations for local, tourist, and online audiences
- First Friday art and culture events
- Training and resources to help educators add arts to curricula
- Opportunities to study ancestral collections

Museum Store

Artists put many hours and materials into their creations, but it's not enough to make beautiful pieces. To continue creating, they must sell their works. The Alutiiq Museum Store helps artists navigate the arts market with the resources, knowledge, and connections to move from the studio to the marketplace—contributing to local economic development and the perpetuation of Alutiiq traditions.

Alutiiq Seal Certification

Only Alutiiq artists registered with the museum can label their artwork with the Alutiiq Seal. The emblem is a mark of authenticity. When you see the Alutiiq Seal attached to a piece of artwork, you can be certain that it was made by an Alutiiq artist. Launched in 2020 this program now supports 90 Alutiiq artists.

#ShopLocal #ShopAlutiiq