

WAMWIK Place to Play

HANDS-ON EXPLORATION FOR CHILDREN AT THE MUSEUM

Inside a replica of a sod house, our youngest visitors will find toys for hands-on exploration. The Wamwik, a place to play in our gallery, features seating and baskets filled with puzzles, puppets, dolls, and games tied to Alutiiq traditions. Parents and teachers, please supervise children's use of the Wamwik.

ALUTIIQ GAMES

Find displays about Alutiiq toys and games and then try playing. Test your hand-eye coordination with kakangaaq. Can you land your game pieces on the target? Or roll the maqaq—dice to score points. Count your points with tally sticks.
