

Cama'i – Hello,

We are open! Last week, 1,178 people helped us celebrate our thirtieth anniversary and the completion of the museum renovation. We loved seeing so many friends and hope many more will visit soon. Come see us Tuesdays through Fridays from 10 am to 4 pm, and Saturdays from Noon to 4 pm. Taikina! — You should come!

Facilities

Celebration

Exhibits

Building Mural

The Fire of Living Culture. Digital artwork by Todd Metrokin, 2024.

Sugpiaq artist Todd Metrokin designed this stunning mural for the outside of the museum's new addition. It is 13 feet tall and 36 feet long, celebrates the endurance of Alutiiq traditions, and helps visitors find the museum. It was produced with support from AIANTA—the American Indian Alaska Native Tourism Association.

Learn More

Cuumillapet—Our Ancestors

Detail of watercolor painting for Cuumillapet—Our Ancestors, by Cheryl Lacy, 2023.

Eleven watercolor paintings of Alutiiq ancestors are the first show in our new Living Culture Gallery. These stunning portraits by Cheryl Lacy are reimagined from historic paintings from 1818. Stop by to see the show or visit online. There is no charge to view this exhibit. Supported by the Alaska State Museum, The CIRI Foundation, Museums Alaska, Rasmuson Foundation, and the Frame Shop.

Online Show

Press Release

Respect & Protect Kodiak History

Ancestral harpoon, lance, and projectile point.

Archaeological sites are a non-renewable resource. Once disturbed, the information they hold is lost forever. As you enjoy Kodiak's beaches this summer remember to take photos not artifacts. Help to preserve the past by leaving finds in place and notifying the land owner or the Alutiiq Museum.

Learn More

New to the Museum Store

Men's cap with black embroidered Iralum Sua —Person of the Moon design.

We've been busy developing new products for the Alutiiq Museum Store—a men's cap, inspiration stones, a fan, dog leashes, and a glass charcuterie board with Alutiiq paddle designs. Stop by to browse our creations and pick up a cap for Fathers' Day.

Alutiiq Museum Store
Online or in person at
215 Mission Road, Kodiak

Shop Online

Membership Matters

It takes many people to keep the light of culture burning bright—culture bearers, learners, and supporters. Everyone has a role. Everyone can help.

Help us celebrate the Alutiiq Museum's 30th anniversary and invest in future programs with a membership or a donation to the museum.

Join Now

Commitment to Excellence

The Alutiiq Museum maintains the highest level of professional practice to foster public trust in our work. We are accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, certified as a natural and cultural history repository by the State of Alaska, and maintain a platinum-level seal of nonprofit transparency from GuideStar.

Our Profile

The Alutiiq Museum is a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and sharing the heritage and living culture of the Alutiiq, an Alaska Native tribal people. Representatives of Kodiak Alutiiq organizations govern the museum with funding from charitable contributions, memberships, grants, contracts, and sales.