

Cama'i – Hello,

We are grateful to welcome March with longer days and so many exciting things happening at the Alutiiq Museum! It is the perfect time of year for our community to visit. With spring break just around the corner for our local schools, plan to stop by during the break. Gallery admission is always free for youth under 18. Quyanaa—thank you for your continued support.

First Friday

March 6th, 5 to 7pm

We are thrilled to welcome Chloe Hawkins of Mingquq Monster for First Friday on March 6th from 5 to 7 pm. Chloe is a local Alutiiq artist with roots in Old Harbor. She crafts handmade goods using materials such as fur and beads. For First Friday, Chloe will be selling her products and doing a Qaspeq sewing demonstration. This event is open to the public and includes free gallery admission. First Friday is supported by the City of Kodiak.

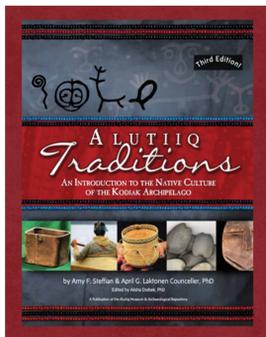

Volunteer of the Year

We are recognizing Marnie Kilborn-Gates as our Volunteer of the Year for 2025! In addition to assisting with a beading project for our grand re-opening, Marnie contributed over 100 beaded necklaces, donated materials, and helped with displays. Quyanaa—thank you, Marnie, for giving your time to the Alutiiq Museum.
