

Cama'i—Hello

As summer transitions to fall, we are looking forward to new opportunities for our community to connect, learn, and get involved with our work. We have several KITA events and programs coming up this fall, including an Ancestral Alutiiq Arts college course and Teaching Artist Training in September. Keep an eye out for more information about these events and other ways to get involved. We hope to see you soon!

WIN A $1,000 SHOPPING SPREE

Native Arts Raffle

Ends September 30th at 4 PM

Join our Native Arts raffle for a chance to win while helping to preserve and share Alutiiq/Sugpiaq heritage and living culture! Your support helps cover operations and program costs and gets you a chance at multiple arts prizes.

- 1st Prize: $1,000 shopping spree to the Alutiiq Museum Store
- 2nd Prize: Original oil painting by Alutiiq artist Gloria Selby (valued at $600)
- 3rd Prize: $500 shopping spree to the Alutiiq Museum Store

Enter Raffle

Shopping spree winners will receive gift cards valid at both Kodiak storefronts as well as at our online store. State of Alaska Gaming Permit #1961

Ancestral Alutiiq Arts

This college course is being offered in partnership with KCC, and will take place both on campus and at the Alutiiq Museum. It focuses on an applied traditional Alaska Native skill. Students will explore the time depth of Alutiiq artistic imagery, the history of cultural suppression and erosion of traditional knowledge, and the reawakening of Alutiiq cultural heritage.

September 18th & 19th

Register

Teaching Artist Training

Hosted in partnership with the Kodiak Arts Council for Alutiiq artists. Artists will learn skills for teaching arts in classrooms, workshops, and at arts camps. This training fulfills the training requirement for teaching arts in Kodiak Island Borough School District schools. Participation in this training will help guarantee a paid teaching opportunity.

September 26th, 10 AM to 4 PM

Register

Remembering Eagle Harbor: Stories and Archaeological Survey Results from an Historic Community

October 1st, 5:30 PM

Join us in person at the Alutiiq Museum workshop or online to learn more about Eagle Harbor's history.

Presented by Molly Odell, Director of Archaeology and Sarah Simeonoff, Archaeology Fellow.

Archaeologists GPS mapping in Eagle Harbor.

Upcoming Events

Membership Matters

Donors and members are the foundation of every nonprofit. When you invest in the Alutiiq Museum, you support the exploration and celebration of 7,800 years of Alutiiq/Sugpiaq heritage. This year consider joining our Many Moons of Membership Campaign and becoming a monthly donor. Just as the moon cycles each month bring light to the dark night sky, your monthly support will help illuminate the richness of Alutiiq culture. Sustaining memberships are an easy way to invest in this work. If connecting to Native culture inspires you, make a monthly donation. A small recurring gift can have a big impact.

Tuniuciiqarpekut-qaq? Will you support us?

Become a Member

Facebook

LinkedIn

Vimeo

Instagram

The Alutiiq Museum is a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and sharing the heritage and living culture of the Alutiiq, an Alaska Native tribal people. Representatives of Kodiak Alutiiq organizations govern the museum with funding from charitable contributions, memberships, grants, contracts, and sales.

215 Mission Road, Kodiak, AK 844-425-8844, alutiiqmuseum.org