Cama'i—Hello

November is Native American Heritage Month, and we are excited to celebrate by offering free admission to all visitors throughout the month. We invite you to come explore our gallery and learn more about the rich history and living culture of the Alutiiq/Sugpiaq people. We have several events coming up this month, including a screening of the powerful film Finding Refuge and our monthly Craft Saturday. Be sure to mark your calendars for our annual Holiday Bazaar on November 28th, featuring a wonderful lineup of local vendors! Quyanaa for your continued support. We look forward to welcoming you to the museum this November.

Finding Refuge Film Screening

November 16th, 3:00 to 4:30PM

Join us at the Alutiiq Museum for a special community event celebrating Native American Heritage Month. The event will begin with a screening of the powerful film Finding Refuge, followed by a presentation from the museum's Director of Language and Living Culture, Dehrich Chya. Together, we will explore Alutiiq/Sugpiaq history. This event is free and open to all, and light refreshments will be served.

Made possible with support from Matson.

Membership Matters

Sustaining memberships are a simple, meaningful way to support our mission and make a lasting impact. If you value connecting with and celebrating Native culture, consider becoming a monthly donor. Even a small recurring gift helps us preserve and share Alutiiq/Sugpiaq history, language, and traditions for generations to come. Quyanaa for your continued support!
